UNVEILING. TO-DAY ing their corn. AT CUMBERLAND

An Imposing Monument to Confederate Heroes of That County.

PLACED ON COURTHOUSE SQUARE

The Monument Will Be Uncovered in the Presence of a Great Throng. Who Will Be Guests of the County at Dinner. Ceremonies on the Occasion.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) CUMBERLAND COURTHOUSE, VA., Nov. 27.-After much hard work by the Nev. 27.—After much hard work by the survivors of the different companies of Cumberland county, an imposing menument has been erected, and will be unveiled here to-morrow, the 28th, with interesting and extensive ceremonies.

The monument is a gray granue shaft, rising to the height of seventeen feet from hear to gray it rests upon a from base to summit. It rests upon a base of blocked granite, and stands half way between the courthouse and the office way between the courthouse and the office of the county clerk, on the Court Square. One one side of the monument is inscribed: "The Cumberland Troop;" on another, "Cumberland Grays," and on the other, "Black Eagles."

HISTORY OF MONUMENT.

The monument dates back in its inception to about twelve years ago, when the Eurviving members of the "Cumberland Troop" took initiatory steps toward the raising of funds for the purpose. About Troop' took initiatory steps toward the raising of funds for the purpose. About three years ago the survivors of the other two companies, and those of the "Cumberland Troop' formed a veteran association, and united in their efforts to complete this memorial of the comrades who fought and fell from 1861 to 1865.

DAY'S PROGRAMME.

The programme for the day begins at 10:20 o'cick, when the association will be called to order by Commander John A. Booker, this to be followed by prayer by Chaplain E. H. Harding. The song service will be directed by Mr. Charles Digs. The address of welcome will be made by Colonel Robert T. Hubard, this

Diggs. The address of wedcome will be made by Colonel Robert T. Hubard, this to be followed by "Rebel Songs" by Comrade J. Collin Neal. The Masonic exercises of the unveiling by De Witt Clinton Lodge, assisted by Lodge No. 41, of Farmville. At 1 o'clock P. M. dinner will be served in the large new tabocco factory of F. P. Flippen and Bro. At 2 o'clock, Judge Jan es W. Marshall, of Craig coun-ty, will make an address, and at 3 o'clock P. M., the monument will be unveiled, followed by a salute by the Richmond How-itzers.

THE CUMBERLAN DTROOPS.

THE CUMBERLAN DIROUTS.
It is interesting to note that the Cumberland troops assisted in the ceremonies at the unveiling of Washington monument on the Capitol Square at Richmond, commanded by Captain John C. Page. This company daies back beyond the forties, and perhaps was among the oldest in the State. During the Civil War it was com-manded by Captains Johnson, Perkins, Isbell, Matthews, and Palmore, respect-

The "Cumberland Grays" was organized in 1861 and commanded by Captain Frank D. Irvin. He was wounded at Sharpsburg, and was succeeded by Cap-tain John A. Booker, who commanded throughout the entire war.

The "Black Eagle" was organized by Captain Carter Harrison at the beginning of the Civil War. His company was attached to the Eighteenth Virginia Regiment, Pickett's Division. Captain Harriment, Pickett's Division. Captain Harrison was killed at Bull Run, and was succeeded by Randolph Harrison, and he, on promotion, was succeeded by Captain Edmund R. Cocke, who led them through

Mr. Cocke was a candidate some years since for Governor of Virginia on the Populist ticket. He is a typical Virginia gentleman and still lives in Cumberland saldiere or "old vets"-from the The soldier.—or "old vets—from the Third Virginia Cavalry will be the guests of the "Cumberiand Troop." Those of the Eighteenth Virginia Volunteers, will be guests of the "Black Eagles," and those of the Twenty-first Virginia will be guests of the veterans of the "Cumberlant Grays" at the meeting here to-mor-

A DOG SHOW.

Thanksgiving at Newport News-Third Trial of Famous Suit.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Nov. 27.— Newport News will have its first dog show beginning to-morrow in the marketuse under the auspices of the Virginia Field and Sporting Kennel Club. In connection with the dog show there will also be large exhibits of poultry, pigeons, and Belgian hares. A large number of entries have been made.

Thanksgiving Day will be observed tomorrow in the usual general fashion. The shippard will suspend work for the day and most of the business houses will close. There will be union services at Trinity Methodist Church in the evening. with preaching by Rev. Dr. W. W. Lear, of Richmond. The Baptists will hold separate services in their Orcutt Avenue and Lafayette Avenue Churches. A large crowd of enthusiasts will go to Norfolk and to Richmond to see the foot-ball

The third trial of the noted suit of Harwood vs. Moss for $10,000 damages has been set for next Monday in the Cir-

The Home Construction Company was chartered here to-day with J. A. Sum-merville as president. It has a capital of $5,000. Store Robbers Caught.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
GLADESBORO, VA., Nov. 17.—Lee Mc Cormack was arrested Saturday night on suspicion of breaking into the store of J. W. Kinzer on the night of November 14th. He made a full confession and named another man as being a partner in the ribbery. McCormack says they got over $100 in cash, but only about $30 could by found. He was tried before Esquire Jackson to-day and sent to the grand jury.

He got a quantity of small articles also from the stora. When arrested he had

He Is Crateful.

Richmond, Va., July 1, 1901.

The Powhatan Medicine Co.:

Sirs.—Gratitude for the relief afforded ne by the use of your Primo Pile Preparation causes me to write and thank you for having prepared and put before the sublic a salve that not only relieved, but believe permanently cured me of an agravated case of Piles, and I candidly believe it will cure any one who tries it.

Respectfully,

G. H. GORDON, Supt.,

The Whitlock Branch, The American Cigar Co.

Price 25c. For Sale by All Druggists.

cartridges.

The weather is now cold and windy and the farmers have a hard time shuck-

FINE FARM SOLD.

Former Owner Selling Out His Persona

Property. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) BOYDTON, VA., Nov. 27.—One of the largest sales of personal property by auction that has been made for many years in Meeklenburg took place yesternay, and is being conducted to-day on the farm is being conducted to-day on the larm "North Ben.," on Roanoke River, oclonging to Mr. George R., Land, a large quantity of live stock being part of it.

Mr. Land sold he farm during this fall to a party living in one of the Northern States.

"North Bend" is one of the largest and best farms on Roanoke, and has upon it an elegant ante-bellum mansion, built by the late Henry E. Coleman, who spared no expense in its style and finish. The dwelling has fourteen rooms, with a large hall passing through the building, with verandas in front and rear.

The Boydton public school is in a more flourishing condition than it has been for many years. There are between sixty and seventy pupils enrolled. Rev. E. L. Baptist is super ntendent, assisted by Miss Annie Hardy.

The tobacco market has been well sustained here this fail. The three large ordering houses, recently built, have given an impetus to the tobacco market, and the large means make things the buyers with large means make things

Mrs. A. T. Homes, the wife of a pro-minent druggist of this place, is criti-cally ill at her home.

PROMINENT MAN PARALYZED.

Montpeller Undergoing Many Improvements. Literary Club Officers.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 27.—
Captain John M. Smith, a prominent citizen of Spotsylvania county, who was paralyzed recently, is somewhat improved.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church is observing this week as "Week of Prayer." Services are held each afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of one of the members of the society, as follows: Manday at Mrs. T. N. Brante. fone of the members of the secrety, as follows: Monday at Mrs. T. N. Brents, Tuesday at Mrs. W. S. Embrey's, Wednesday at Mrs. Thomas Jackson's, and to-morrow at Mrs. R. O. Perry's.

A large force of men have been engaged many months in changing the fine old colonial mension "Montpelier," in Orange county, formerly the home of President James Madison, into a beautiful modern residence. New wings have been erected, the building is lighted with electricity and supplied with hot and cold water, and every other convenience added. The new owner, Mr. William Dupont, a wealthy of Delaware is gentleman formerly of Delaware, is spending thousands of dollars in improving the entire estate.

Mr. G. C. Elkins, having resigned as postmaster of Woodville, Rappahannock county, to take a seat in the Legislature next week, to which he was elected this month, defeating a prominent Democrat.

Miss Arizona Elkins has been appointed in his place.

Mr. Hiram McMullen has been appointed a supervisor for Greene county to succeed the late Champ Powell.

The Ruther Glen Literary Club, of Caroline county, has elected the following officers for the winter: Miss Janey Penick, president; Dr. E. C. Cobb, secre-tary; Miss Mamie Wright, treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Brown, of Westmoreland county, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage a few days ago.

MUCH VEXED QUESTION. Location of Clerk's Office at Williamsburg

Not Yet Decided.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., Nov. 27.—The James City Board of Supervisors met here to-day to consider the question of the location of the proposed clerk's office. The location of the proposed cierk source. The supervisors are unanimous for it to be placed on the green, and will appropriate $3.000 if it can be put there, while the City Council has a majority in favor of the lot on the opposite side of the street. There was to have been a joint meeting. of the Council and supervisors this afternoon, but the former lacked a quorum, so it was postponed until the third Wednesday of December, when all will be settled, it is hoped.

"Dr." Hall, a negro who was arrested a few days ago by the authorities at Toano on a telegram from Brunswick, is still in iall here and has not been sent for yet. though the authorities here have notified twice. He will be discharged in a day or

HOTEL BURNED.

Dublin Suffers from a Destructive Fire-No Water.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
DUBLIN, VA., November 27.—Fire at this place last night destroyed Charles L.
Cecil's hotel and the store of the Dublin Grocery Company and damaged the meat market and residence of L. A. Tay-

The fire broke out at 10 o'clock in the hotel and spread so rapidly that a large part of the furniture was lost. Most of their goods were saved by the Dublin Grocery Company. Losses-C. L. Cecil, $1,800, $1,060 insurance; Dublin Grocery Company, $200, fully insured; L. A. Taylor, $100, fully insured.

RECALCITRANT CITIZENS.

Stab the Justice and Black the Eye of the Finest.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WELDON, N. C., Nov. 27.—Two white men came here to-day from the country and engaged in a desperate fight. It took three officers and several citizens to ar-

three omers and rest them.

Mr. W. T. Shaw, a justice of the peace, commanded the peace and was cut in the hand. Policeman Grant was given a black eye. The men were finally overblack eye. The men were finally overpowered, bound with ropes, and taken Wheatton Up in Arms.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WARSAW, VA., Nov. 27.—At Wheal-ten, Lai caster county, at a late hour last night, a young negro named Summy Bush, while under the influence of whis-key, entered the dwelling of Captain Dick Fleyd during the absence of the captain and terrorized Mrs. Floyd and the children, who fied for protection, by breaking up the furniture and using profane language. The citizens of Whealton are up in arms. Bush has made his es-

Florida Cotton Crop.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—The cotton crop of Florida in 1899, as tabulated and announced by the Census Bureau to-day, comprised 99.038 acres of upland cotton, producing 30 283 commercial bales, or the equivalent of 29.873 standard bales of 500 pounds each, and 25,179 bales were of sol Johnson were grown 122.757 acres of sea island cotton, producing 31,573 commercial bales or the equivalent of 94,113 standard bales of 500 pounds each. The sea island cotton ginned was the equivalent of 24,150 standard bales of 500 pounds.

LAND APPRAISERS IN PETERSBURG

A Small Boy Falls Into a Tub of Scalding Water.

A LUNENBURG MOONSHINER.

Thomas Logan Parrish, an Aged Citizen, Wil Serve Thirty Days in Jail for Operating an lilicit Still-Wills Admitted to Record in the flustings Court.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 27.—Thomas
White, E. L. Gates and Cadmus Archer, the three commissioners appointed by the Chesterfield County Court to assess the damages done to the farm of A. B. Cook, of Chesterfield county, by the right of way granted to the Scaboard Air Line Railway, have been hearing evidence in Petersburg to-day. There are about twenty witnesses to be examined, and the day was occupied in the examination of only two, Dr. Bolling Jones and W. E. Dibbell. Hearing the evidence will probably occupy three days. W. B. McLwane and Judge J. L. Lewis are counsel for Cook, and Charles Page and Ernest Wells, of Manchester, are counsel for the railroad company. This is the third time the case has been considered by appraisers. The first time the damages agreed upon were $5,000 and the second time $6,000. In each case the verdict was set aside by

There are fewer country people coming to Petersburg at present than has been the case at this season of the year for many years. Merchants in all branches are complaining of a falling off of coun-try purchasers. This is due probably to the bad season for handling tobacco and the low prices of peanuts.

BOY SCALDED TO DEATH. The two-year-old son of Fred Gieder who lives at the Whitehead farm, near this city, was scalded to death yesterday afternoon. Its mother had placed a tub of hot water on the floor, and the little or not water on the noot, and the note boy, while playing, toppled and fell into it. Mrs. Gleder rescued the child imme-diately, but it had been so badly scalded that it died within a short time after being taken out.

Thomas Logan Parrish, a well known Thomas Logan Parrish, a well known clitzen of Lunenburg county, seventy-two years of age, yesterday began to serve a sentence of thirty days' imprisonment in the Petersburg jail. Parrish was convicted in the United States Diswas convicted in the United States Dis-trict Court in Norfolk on the charge of operating an illicit still. He selected the Petersburg jail in which to serve the sen-tence. Parrish has a wife and five chil-

ROUGH RIDER DEAD.

Mr. Joseph A. Carr, of Washington, D.
C., son of Mr. Joseph Carr, formerly of Petersburg, dled suddenly in Washington this morning. Mr. Carr is well known in this city. He was a member of Roose-velt's Rough Kiders during the Spanish

Mr. P. S. Plummer, of Petersburg, and Miss Clara Wariner, of Prince George county, were married in Prince George

In the Hustings Court to-day an authen In the Hustings Court to-day an authenticated copy of the will of Mrs. Mickey R. Gill, of New Hanover county, N. C., was admitted to probate. An authenticated copy of the probate of the will of Benjamin H. Marsh, of Salisburg, N. C., was admitted to record yesterday

TO LAUNCH A LIGHT SHIP.
The large light ship being built by the Petersburg Iron Works Company, of this city, will soon be compared and will be launched within a short time. The ship is 118 feet long and 29 feet wit, and built at a cost of about $80,000. It will be used off the coast Maine.

will be used off the coast Maine.

Thanksgiving-Day will be celebrated in Petersburg to-morrow. Services will be held in several of the churches; and the schools and public offices will be closed. Many will go from Petersburg to Nor-folk and Richmond to attend the foot-ball games. The Thanksgiving Ginner the benefit of the Home for the Sick for the benefit of the Home for the Sick will be given by the ladies of Petersburg.

Mr. James Coleman, who was injurid by a kick from a horse several days ago, died at his home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Budd have te-turned to Petersburg from their wedding

The Virginia German Club will give a german at Library Hall to-night SEARCH FOR HIS WIFE.

SEARCH FOR HIS WIFE.

Eddie Grammar, of Waverly, is in Petersburg in search of his wife, who left his home Sunday. She has been staying at the Washington House in Petersburg, but cannot be found to-day. Mrs. Grammar left home several weeks ago because, she sald, she could not live with her mother-in-law. Mr. Grammar says he wants his wife to come and live with him and he will forgive her of all.

SNATCH THIEVES.

Snatch thieves got in good work in

SNATCH THIEVES.

Snatch thieves got in good work in Petersburg this evening. About 6 o'clock a burly negro jumped from his hiding place behind a large tree in front of Dr. Leigh's residence, on Sycamore Street, and contributed from Mice Mettis, Witter, he snatched from Miss Mattie Watson her

ECZEMA'S ITCH IS TORTURE.

Eczema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and in-flammation; little pustular cruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard dry and fiscared. Eczema in any hard, dry and fissured. Eczema in any form is a tormenting, stubbern disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable; the acid burning humor seems to coze out and set the skin on fire. Salves, washes nor other external applications do any real good, for as long as the poison remains in the blood it will keep the skin irritated.

DAD FORM OF TETTER.

"For three years I had Tetter on my hands, which caused hands, which caused them to swell to twice their natural size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of running sores, very painful, and causing memuch discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetter, had progressed too far to be cured, and they could do nothing for me. It sook only three cures Tetter, Erysipelas, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and all skin diseases due to a poisoned condition of the blood. Send for our book and write us about your case. Our physicians have about your case. Our physicians have made these diseases a life study, and can help you by their advice; we make no charge for this service; All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence.

S. S. S. neutralizes this acid poison, cools the blood and restores it to a healthy, natural state, and the rough, unhealthy skin becomes soft, smooth and clear.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

MUNYON'S

Nearly everybody seems to be taking Prof. Mun-yon's 4 old 4 ure whenever a cold appears. It relieves the head, ness, throat and lungs so quickly that a cold need no longer be a foretunner of grippe, diphtheria or pneumonia. A vial of the Cold Cure is like a life insurance policy. Every one of his remedies is as sure. Mostly 25c. vial. Guide te Health free. Munyon, New York and Philadelphia Health free. Munvon, New York and Philadelphia MUNYON'S INHALER CURES CATABBH.

handsome silver chatelaine and purse. Miss Watson, with two .. of her friends, Misses Bird and Spicer, were on their way to a reception on Sycamore Street, and the robbery took place in one of the most prominent residential sections in this city.

The negro ran so fast and disappeared The negro that so make that disappears so quickly in the alley passing the residence formerly occupied by the Petersburg Club, that the young ladies would be unable to identify him. The purse contained a small sum of money. The name of Miss Watson is on both the bag and purse.

A colored woman, who reached Petersburg this evening from Washington, was robbed at the market. She made a pur-chase at Gereck's store, at Second and River Streets, and putting the change in her purse started up town. When she was passing through the market a negro man pointed a pistol in her face and demanded her pocket-book. The woman turned it over to him and he escaped.

From the descriptions given the thieves are different men. The police had made no arrests at midnight.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

Miss Eliza Carrett Kemper Becomes the Bride ot Mr. William Uhl r.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) ALEXANDRIA VA. Nov. 27.-A fash-ionable marriage occurred at 7 o'clock this evening at the residence of Colonel Kosciusko Kemper, No. 204 North Wash-ington Street, when his daughter, Miss Elliza Garrett Kemper, became the bride of Mr. William Uhler, of this city. The ceremony was performed in the parlors, which were decorated with holly and evergreens. The bride entered the parlor with her father, who gave her in marriage. She was becomingly attired in a gown of wihite organdy over white satin, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Rev. Frank J. Brooke, pastor of the Sec-ond Presbyterian Church, officiated. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Gretta

McCoy, of Riverton, Va., who was attired in a gown of white organdy, and carried a bouquet of white and red carnations.

Mr. Koseiusko Kemper, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as best man.

The following were the bridesmaids:
Misses Mary M. Syme, Grace Green, Anna

Leadbetter, Cecelia Green, Eliza H. Syme and Mary Glen Uhler. Miss Christiana Kemper, niece of the bride, was flower Edward Kemper, nephew of the oride, was page.

The ceremony was followed by a recep tion from 7:30 until 10 P. M. There was a large gathering of invited guests at the reception. The presents received by the couple were numerous and handsome. After the reception the couple left for northern bridal tour, and upon their return will reside in this city.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 27.—Miss Mary
E. Lowe was married here at noon today to Rev. Francis H. Ritchie, of St.
Louis, Mo. The marriage was at St.
Paul's Church, Rev. Beverly D. Tucker,
the rector officiating. The bride is a the rector, officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Lowe. Miss Huston, of New York, was maid of honor; Mrs. Walker and Miss Ella Lowe, the bride's sisters, were bridesmalds. est man was Mr. Cushman, of New York. The church was beautifully decorated, and a large company were present, including many guests from afar and Norfolk and Portsmouth society people.

Williams-Skinner. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

DANVILLE, VA., November 27.— The marriage of Mr. Theoderfe Williams, a prominent young lawyer of Norfolk, to Miss Mamie Sue Skinner, of this place, took place at the Episcopal Church at high noon to-day. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Baker P. Lee, of Lexington, Ky., a brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. Cleveland Hall, pastor of the church. A large delegation from Norfolk was present.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on the 1:39 train for a northern tour. They will reside in Norfolk in the future.

Sn'dow-English.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
ROANOKE, VA. Nov. 27.—Mr. C. L.
Snidow, of Pembroke, traveling salesman for a Lynchburg house, and Miss Sallie
B. English, daughter of J. L. English, of B. English, daughter of a language of the lang a norhern tour.

Kagey-Price.

Kagey-Frice.

(Shecial Dispatch to The Times,)
WOODSTOCK, VA., Nov. 27.—Miss Lulu E. Price, daughter of Capt B. Z. Price, of near New Market, who is one of the richest farmers in this section of the State, was quietly married at the home of her brother, Mr. Miller A. Price, to Mr. Harry, Kagey a prominent young Mr. Harry Kagey, a prominent young man of near Quicksburg, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. P. D. Stephenson, paster of the Presbyterian Church of Woodstock, offi-Gilmore-Cardwell.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 27.—Miss Maud Cardwell, daughter of R. D. Cardwell, and Mr. John C. Gilmore, a prominent young lawyer of Lebanou, were married to-day, Rev. Dr. Campbell officiating. Mr. H. S. Gilmore, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Ruth Cardwell, sis-ter of the bride, maid of honor.

Williams-Jett.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WARSAW, VA., Nov. 27.—Bethany M.
E. Church, Reedsville, was the scene of a brilliant marriage this afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Oille Jett, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jett, and Mr. Thomas J. Williams. The marriage ceremony, was not hirms. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. F. Robins in the presence of a large gathering. The church was elaborately decorated.

Norfolk Weddings.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 27.—Miss Lillian
B. Archer was married here to-day to Mr.
Armistead Plummer Pannill. The marrlage was at the bride's home E. Grammer, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, officiated.

Miss Anne Belle Stoakes was married to-day at Portsmouth to Mr. Julius Billsoly, Jr. Rev. E. H. Rawlings, pas-tor of Monumental M. E. Church, offi-ciated.

A MINISTER'S BRIDE.

May Lemon.

ion Lemon, at Longdale, this evening, when their daughter, Miss Laura May, was united with Rev. John Keesee Goode, uated with honors a short time ago. The happy couple will make an extensive tour of the northern citles, and on their return will reside in Surry county, at the present field of the groom

Coroner Batts Holding Daily Sessions of the Caronar's Jury.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 27.—Norfolk Coroner Batts, still believing that J. W. McIndoe, the Richmond insurance agent found dead on the street here, may have been murdered, is seeking evidence in the case. The coroner's jury will be ad-journed from day to day while the coroner probes the matters.

giving ia the Field.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 27.-The Lynchburg Traction and Light Company has placed an order for six new combination summer and winter cars. The company has just completed a branen line to the Union Depot and is now at work on an extension across White Rock Hill to the Presbyterian Cemetery. Lynchburg will soon have a complete street car system, touching every section of the city and extending several miles into the suburbs. Since last May the company has spent $22,000 in improving its property. Mr Fred Harner will deliver the me

Mr. Fred Harper will derive the me morial address of the Wilmington (N. C.) Lodge of Elks next Sunday. Many members of the Lynchburg Fox Club left this afternoon for Rustburg to spend Thanksgiving Day and Friday in hunting. A number of ladies will join the party to-morrow morning. The the party to-morrow morning. The Thanksgiving dinner will be taken at

Mr. Parrish Gets a Big Contract Down in Florida.

W. Hughes, retired Judg. of the Federal Court for the Eastern D strict of Vir-ginia, who has been ill at his country home, near Abingdon, for two weeks does not improve. Hs condition is re-garded as being anything but hopeful, owing to his advanced age. Members of his family have been with him since he

J. W. Parrish, the Lynchourg contrac J. W. Parrish, the Lynchold contractor, who was recently awarded the contract for build ng the National Soldiers Home at Johnson City, Tenn., has been awarded an important contract in Florida also, and will remodel the Florida State Capitol building at Tallahassee The contract amounts to $66,000.

WORK ON CAPE RAILROAD.

begun to-day. O. E. Garrett was to-day at Portsmouta acquitted of the murder of William Bullock (colored). Garrett, a North Carolina officer, while attempting to capture Bullock, who murdered Police-Officer Walsh, of Prechold, N. J., shot him. Bullock subsequently died.

a negro whom they suspect is Ed. Wil-liams, allas "Black Damond," who es-caped some two years ago from a guard conveying him to the penitentiary. A re-ward is offered for Black Diamond, and the suspect win be conveyed to Richmond to-morrow for the purpose of iden tifying him.

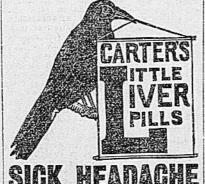

CADET TEAMS.

Raw Weather Prevented a Successful Torchlight Procession.

here to-morrow, was not the success anticipated, few besides boys participate ing, as the night was raw.

Both teams are here, and the game will probably be largely attended, but public interest is not so great as usual.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WAKEFIELD, VA., Nov. 27.-Clem Neal and three other colored men of Dendron and three other colored men of Dendro were crossing Blackwater River in Little Pills.

Small Pill. Small Price.

Marriage of Rev. J. K. Goode and Miss Laura

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
CLIFTON FORGE, VA., Nov. 27.—A beautiful marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mar-was united with Rev. John Reesee Goode, a young Baptist minister.

The bride is one of Alleghany's fairest and most attractive daughters, laving been educated at the Woman's College, of Richmond, Va., from which institution she graduated a few years since.

Rev. Mr. Goode is a native of Richmond, being the son of the late J. R. Coode. a well known Richmonder. Mr.

mond, being the son of the late 3. R. Goode, a well knewn Richmonder. Mr. Goode received his preliminary education at the High School and later at the Richmond College, where he won the degree of Bachelor of Arts. From the latter college he entered the Crozier Theological Seminary, from which he graduated with honors a short time ago.

M'INDOE MURDERED.

IMPROVED STREET CAR SYSTEM

Lyachburg Fox Hunt Club to Spend Thanks-

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

JUDGE HUGHES' ILLNESS.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) BRISTOL, VA., Nov. 27.—Judge Robert was taken ill.

O. E. Garrett Acquitted of the Charge of Marder.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 27.-Construc-tion work upon the Chesapeake Terminal Company broad gauge railway, between Norfolk and Cape Henry, was actively

The Portsmouth police have in custody

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 27.—The torchlight procession here to-night in celebration of the arrival of the foot-ball teams of the Virginia Military Institute and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, who play

Drowned in Black Water.

Positively cured by these

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They Regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

Small Dose.

"FOR CATARRHAL TROUBLES

"Pe-ru-na is One of the Best of Remedies," (SAYS GENERAL JOHN B. CLARK, OF WASHINGTON, D. C.)

General John B. Clark, of Washington, D. C., is a statesman and soldier. He served ten years in the National House of Representatives and six years as clerk of the House of Representatives. This prominent gentleman gives his opinion of Peruna in the following letter:

stantial tonic, and one of the best remedies for catarrhal trou-

The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio: Gentlemen-"I can recommend your Peruna as a good, sub-ble."-JOHN B. CLARK. November is the Month of Coughs, dle Ilis is Necessary. Pe-ru-na is Such a Remedy as the Colds and Acute Catarrh.

A Preventive Against These Inevita-

Following Testimonials Indicate. Cough--- Caiarrh of Throat.

Mr. George Parrett, Glencoe, Ont., is a member of the Noble Grand Lodge, No. 135, I. O. O. F., Glencoe, Ont.; Master Workman Ancient Order of United Workmen, of Glencoe. He writes: "I have been using Peruna for some time for a cough and catarrh of the throat with very satisfactory results. Having neglected the cough, catarrh deraving neglected the cough, catarrh developed, and my physicians said I was threatened with catarrh of the stomach. "My breath was very offensive, and I was troubled with nausea. Less than two bottles cured me."—Geo. Parrett.

"Pe-ru-na Cures Colds and Coughs."

Miss Jennie May Borders, No. 744 Wai-nut Street, Memphis, Tenn., writes: "A few months ago, after getting my feet wet, I contracted a heavy cold which soon started me to coughing badly. My throat was very raw and sore, my head ached and I felt very miserable. ached and I felt very miserable.
"I tried a number of well-known remedles, but nothing gave me relief until, reading in the paper of Peruna, I bought a bottle. It gave me blessed relief as soon as I began to take it. The soreness soon relieved or my throat and langs was soon reneved and I noted that it acted as a strength-ening tonic."—Miss Jennie May Borders.

Peruna Built Me Up.

Address Dr. Hartmar, president of the Mr. John Delaney, No. 586 Macomb | Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O. small boat while intoxicated last night. lature are becoming active, and by Mon-Neal was trying to throw overboard a dog. In doing so the boat was a pped and sunk. The men were all thrown out, resulting in the drowning of Neal. THE CLERKS HAVE A BANQUET

Their Annual Feast at Which Mr. Wysor Makes a Fine Speech. The Railroad and Steamship Cierks' Association gave their annual banquet at Kirkwood's Broad-Street Cafe last night.

Kirkwood's Broad-Street Cafe last night. The banquet was largely attended and was a success in every respect.

Mr. J. G. Strangham, chairman of the association, acted as toastmaster. The speaker of the evening was Hon. J. C. Wysor, of Pulaski, a-member of the Constitutional Convention. Mr. Wysor made a short and exceedingly interesting speech, taking for his subject Article II. of the constitution of the association, speech, taking for his sunject article fi-of the constitution of the association, which he analyzed and discussed in a most entertaining way. He dwelt mostly upon the benefits and advantages, material, social, moral and intellectual, resulting from union and co-operation. His speech was well received and at the close of it he was extended a rising vote of thanks. A number of the members of the asso-ciation were called upon for short in-formal talks, after which supper was served and a smoker followed. A splen-did musical programme was rendered during the smoker by the W. D. Selden Mandolin and Gultar Club, a quartette composed of the members of the asso-ciation, and Mr. Charles C. Crump.

The officers of the association are: Chas. V. Palmer, president; H. H. Pollard, vice-president; J. W. Gregg, financial secretary; E. M. McClure, recording secretary; J. B. Leary, treasurer. The association's membership numbers several hundred. Among the invited guests present were Messrs, Samuel Cooke, of the C. & O.; Ewen Davidson, of the A. C. L., and B. M. Walden, of the C. & O.

Political Notes.

The election to be held next Tuesday to choose a successor to Delegate New-ton in the Constitutional Convention, Street, Detroit, Mich., is secretary of the Young Men's Democratic Club, of De-troit. He writes: "When a man is saved from drowning when a man is saved from the warmen he is apt to be grateful to his rescuer. I have this feeling for Peruna. Last winter I was very sick with la grippe resulting from a cold and a run-down condition, that I despaired of getting well. Medicines did me no good and I became weaker every day. "Peruna came as my friend, built me up, and brought health and strength back to me. I have advised dozens of my friends to use it, and I hear nothing but words of praise for it."-John Delaney. Periect Health from the Use of Pe-ru-na.

Mr. J. N. Herbert, No. 1032 Amhurst

Street, Buffalo, N. Y., is ex-guard of New York State Reformatory, Elmira; member American Temperance Association. He writes: "I most heartily recommend Peruna for all catarrhal disorders of the sys tem. I suffered for two years from a cold contracted foring the winter, which developed an unpleasant catarrh through the system and slao affected my kidneys.

Medicines did ne no good, only seemed to aggravate my troubles, until I took "Before the first bottle was used I felt Before the first bottle was used I felt a general in provement, and then kert taking it for four months, before I felt that I was entirely cured. I have now enjoyed perfect health for the past year, and certainly have every reason to endorse Peruna."—J. N. Herbert.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you als valuable advices day the situation will be getting very in-teresting. laulis Mission -The mission at Sacred-Meart Catholic Church continues with areat success. The Paulist Fathers are preaching, and are nightly attracting large authences. The subject discussed Tuesday night was The Bible, or an Infallible Church.

Which Will Lead Us to the Truth of Shockoe Council.

Christ."

Deputy Grand Regent Harry Kemp, of Virginia, was tendered an informal reception by Shockoe Council, Royal Arcanum, at the r meeting last night Several important subjects were considered, and a programme of appropriate speeches and was concluded with a sumptuous Thanksgivlag Reuglon.

Grove Council, No. 40, Jr. O. U. A. M., held a big reunion last night at their hall in Howard's Grove. Speeches were delivered by a number of the members, after which the council served a Thanksgiving supper, consisting of all of the delicacies of the season.

WESTERN DISTRICT COURT. Judge McDowell to Qualify and Hold a See

sion at Once. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) BRISTOL, VA., Nov. 27.—United States Attorney Judge T. M. Alderson, of the Western District, has received a communication form Hon. Henry C. McDowell, who was recently appointed judge of the Western District, stating that the latter will qualify forthwith, and will hold his first term of court at harr sonourg need

Various members of the par in this end of the State will unite to-morrow in entertaining Judge McDowell at a ban-quet at Big Stone Gap.

smith of Theen, Ind., that for ten years the city, and an exceptionally light yets will be polled. The only candidates are Major Otway S. Allen and Major A. S. Lanier.

Senator-elect Frank C. Moon, of Buckingham, is in the city, and is registered at Murphy's. He will probably remain over until the Legislature assembles next Wednesday.

Candidates for offices before the Legis-

A STARTLING SURPRISE. Very few civild believe in looking at A. T Bicedey, a healthy, robust black-smith of Theen, Ind., that for ten years